A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER FOR FACULTY AND STAFF AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND AT COLLEGE PARK

JUNE 1, 1992
VOLUME 6, NUMBER 31

University of Maryland at College Park, Spring Commencement, May 19, 1992

"Now I will help you with one thing. Even if you don't have a job, I want you to practice something that is going out of style and that is being a human being to another human being."

Bridwell Named Chair of Women's Commission

Margaret W. Bridwell, MD

Margaret W. Bridwell, MD, director of the University Health Center, has been named chairman of the President's Commission on Women's Affairs by College Park President William E. Kirwan. The two-year appointment begins in August.

Established in 1973, the Commission serves as an advocate for the interests of the entire community of women at College Park by advising the President on issues related to women, gender and diversity; investigating, studying and making recommendations concerning the needs of all constituencies of women on campus; suggesting to the President responses to problems as they arise; and educating the community about women's issues and accomplishments.

"Women's issues have always been a primary interest to me, so I am flattered and excited to be offered this position," says Bridwell. Bridwell joined the Health Center in 1970 as a staff gynecologist and then started the Women's Clinic in 1974 before becoming director of the Health Center in 1975.

Although she declines to discuss her priorities for the Commission until she meets with current chairman Josephine Withers and other Commission members, Bridwell admits to an ongoing interest in health issues and athletics. But, she adds, the Commission represents all women, and her work as chairman will reflect this.

COMMENCEMENT

Judging by the grins on their faces, these graduates of 1992 should have little trouble remembering who spoke at their commencement.

"Remember, you have received a wonderful education. You now have the responsibility to use it not only for yourself and your family but for your community and country."

—A. James Clark, chairman of the board and president of Clark Enterprises, Inc.

Dr. Kirwan with honorary degree recipients A. James Clark, Dr. William H. Cosby Jr., and Lynn Martin.

For the first time in an almost a decade, graduates were seated on the floor commencement ceremony.
